One Lost Note , a mysterious film featuring a sequence of riddles leading to a treasure. Eventually, Arjun and Meera find a note in the riddle sequence that indicates that the treasure belongs to the owner of the missing film. Plot Arjun and Meera, tourists from Delhi, are on a sightseeing trip to Matheran, in Maharashtra. They are attracted to a photograph on a train compartment wall which appears to depict a treasure. On closer inspection, the photograph turns out to be a fake. Arjun and Meera realise that they are in trouble, as they had forgotten to keep the tickets. Arjun suggests that they board the train, pretending to be tourists. They realise that the train will arrive in Mumbai that day, and search for a place to stay for the night. They see a hotel advertised for rent in the train. The hotel's website states that the manager, Rajesh Wadhwa, lives in Delhi. The Wadhwas are a wealthy, influential and respectable family. Arjun and Meera sneak into the hotel's terrace, believing that Rajesh Wadhwa will live there. Arjun and Meera hide in a room that they are led to believe is for Rajesh Wadhwa, and the mystery of the photograph begins. Rajesh, who is in fact none other than Arjun and Meera's cousin Karan, asks them to hide in his room. He explains that he was misled by his friend Shashi, who had convinced him that this hotel was very cheap and even gave him a room number. Shashi had booked the room for Rajesh under a fake name. Rajesh and Shashi then try to find a safe place to stay for the night, where they are helped by Anju, a young girl who rents rooms in this hotel. They find a nearby hotel called "Hi-tech" and find a room for themselves. During the night, Rajesh notices that Shashi is gone. He then tells Arjun and Meera that he rented a room under a fake name, and had his friend Shashi contact the Wadhwas to inform them about the room. He also reveals that he has sold everything he owns to Shashi, because he was on the verge of losing everything to his gambling debts. A day later, the Wadhwas receive a call from the hotel. Rajesh, who had been planning to escape on a train the next day, is forced to take refuge in a room under the 82157476af
